Part 1 · Praying over today's news (points 1–5)

1. Israel's voters and leaders as the 27 October election nears

In the news: Benny Gantz's Blue and White drops out of the Knesset race; Ahmad Tibi outlines a plan to oust Netanyahu if neither bloc forms a majority

> [5] Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. [6] In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
> — Proverbs 3:5-6 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, the election is days away, Blue and White has left the race, and leaders are already planning for a vote that may give no bloc a majority. I ask You to teach every leader and every voter in Israel to trust in the LORD with all the heart and not to lean on their own understanding. Direct their paths, Lord. Give wisdom to those who will form a government, honesty to those who campaign, and a peaceful coalition of conscience rather than ambition. Let the outcome serve the safety and good of all who live in the land. You are the Prince of Peace and the King over every ruler. Rule in these decisions, and let Your will be done in Israel. Amen.

2. Restraint and peace as Iran, the US and Israel weigh war or a ceasefire

In the news: Iran says indirect talks with the US on a seven-day ceasefire continue (earlier this week); High Court bars real-time digital turnout reporting by party representatives at polling stations

> [7] Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. [8] They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.
> — Psalm 20:7-8 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, indirect talks on a ceasefire and the Strait of Hormuz continue, and Israeli officials are watching an Iranian buildup. Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. I ask You to put restraint into every heart that holds the power to start a war, and wisdom into every negotiator. Keep the soldiers, sailors and civilians in the whole region from harm. Let the talks lead to a calm that holds, and let those who plan violence be turned back from it. Be Israel's confidence, Lord, and teach all nations to look to You for safety rather than to weapons alone. Amen.

3. Justice and safety in Judea and Samaria during the olive harvest

In the news: Court orders release of nine of ten settler suspects in attacks on a photojournalist and diplomats; Israel moves to deport 11 foreign activists over an uncoordinated olive harvest

> [44] But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; [45] That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
> — Matthew 5:44-45 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You told us to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us. I bring You the olive harvest in Judea and Samaria, where a photojournalist and European diplomats were attacked, suspects have been released to house arrest, and activists face deportation. Protect every farmer, Palestinian and Israeli, and every visitor in the fields. Move the authorities to act with justice and equal fairness, and turn the hearts of any who commit violence. Make peace where there is fear and distrust, and let Your sun rise on the just and the unjust alike in mercy. Lord, heal this land of its hatred. Amen.

4. The bereaved families of hostages, and the bitterness of the campaign

In the news: Father of a slain hostage reported assaulted at a Netanyahu campaign stop

> Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.
> — Psalm 55:22 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, Haaretz reports that the father of a slain hostage was assaulted at a campaign stop, and that activists have been attacked in these final days before the vote. I cast this burden on You, as Your word invites me to. Comfort every family still grieving a son or daughter taken or killed, and sustain them with Your nearness. Calm the anger of the campaign and restrain every hand raised in violence. Surround the one who was hurt with healing and dignity, and give the nation a way to disagree without hating. You never let the righteous be moved, Lord. Hold these families and hold Israel. Amen.

5. Jewish communities abroad facing threats to their synagogues

In the news: Israel moves to deport 11 foreign activists over an uncoordinated olive harvest

> [29] Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. [30] But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. [31] Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.
> — Matthew 10:29-31 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, a man in Utah has been charged with a hate crime after allegedly threatening to blow up a synagogue. I pray for that congregation and for every Jewish community that now watches its doors with fear. Your word says not a sparrow falls without the Father, and that we are worth more than many sparrows. Keep these families safe, Lord, and give them peace as they gather to worship. Give police and neighbors a quick and caring response, and turn the heart of anyone who nurses hatred toward the Jewish people. Let no one be left alone with fear, and let Your peace guard their homes and prayer. Amen.

Part 2 · Divine protection of Israel and the Jewish people (points 6–10)

6. Jerusalem and its people surrounded by the Lord

> As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.
> — Psalm 125:2 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, as the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so You are round about Your people from now and for ever. I ask You to surround Jerusalem and every town and village in Israel with Your protection tonight. Guard the streets, the schools, the markets and the homes. Give the city peace within its walls and rest to those who cannot sleep from worry. Hold back every plan of violence, and let Your presence be a wall that no weapon can pass. Keep Your people in Your sight, Lord, and let all who live in Jerusalem, of every faith, know safety under Your care. Amen.

7. Soldiers and their families

> Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.
> — Deuteronomy 31:6 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I pray for the soldiers of Israel, for reservists called away from their families, and for the parents and spouses who wait at home. Be strong in them and give them good courage, for You go with them and You will not fail them nor forsake them. Guard them from harm and from the weight of what they have seen. Give their commanders wisdom and restraint, and keep them from needless loss of life on every side. Comfort the wounded and the grieving, and hold each family together in Your peace. Let no one feel forgotten by You, Lord, and bring them home safely. Amen.

8. God's faithfulness to His covenant with Israel

> [35] Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: [36] If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.
> — Jeremiah 31:35-36 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are the LORD of hosts who gave the sun for light by day and the moon and the stars by night, and who promised that the seed of Israel will not cease from being a nation before You. I thank You that Your word does not change with the polls, the elections or the wars. Keep Your covenant faithfulness before Israel's eyes in these uncertain days. Remind Your people that their preservation rests on Your promise and not on their strength. Give me faith to stand with them in prayer, and let the nations see that You are faithful, Lord. Amen.

9. Jews in the diaspora, that their hearts would not be troubled

> Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
> — John 14:1 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You said, Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. I bring You Jewish families in every country who feel uneasy walking to a synagogue, wearing a kippah, or speaking about Israel. Quiet their hearts, Lord, and give them courage without bitterness. Raise up friends, neighbors and officials who will stand beside them. Let the strain between communities be eased by understanding, and let every threat be stopped before it harms anyone. Draw them to Yourself as their true peace and their safe place, wherever they live in the world. Amen.

10. Hope and peace for a people long weary of war

> Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.
> — Romans 15:13 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, the God of hope is the One I ask to fill Israel with joy and peace in believing. So many have lived through war, rocket fire, funerals and fear, and their strength is tired. Pour out Your Holy Spirit on the weary, the anxious and the bereaved, so that they abound in hope. Let children grow up without the sound of sirens. Let the elderly and the sick find rest. Heal minds marked by trauma, and restore the joy that violence has stolen. Be the hope that does not disappoint, Lord, and let that hope be seen across the whole land. Amen.

Part 3 · Salvation of the Jewish people in Jesus Christ (points 11–15)

11. A fountain opened for cleansing from sin

> In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.
> — Zechariah 13:1 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You promised through Zechariah that a fountain would be opened to the house of David and to the people of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness. I ask You to open that fountain to Jewish people today, and to let them see in You the cleansing they need. Show them, in their own homes and quiet hours, that You are the Messiah who forgives. Soften every heart weighed down by guilt or religious weariness, and wash it clean in Your grace. Give me love for my Jewish neighbors rather than judgment, and keep me praying until the fountain flows. Amen.

12. Look to Him and be saved

> [22] Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.
> [23] I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.
> — Isaiah 45:22-23 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are the LORD who says, Look unto me, and be ye saved, for I am God and there is none else. I pray that many in Israel and among the Jewish people everywhere would turn their eyes to You. Draw secular Jews, religious Jews, the young and the old, the grieving and the proud. Let them lift their gaze from fear and from the news to see You, and let each find forgiveness and peace in You alone. I ask for open eyes where eyes have been closed. Let the day come when every knee bows and every tongue confesses You as Lord. Amen.

13. The Way, the Truth and the Life

> Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
> — John 14:6 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You said, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. I pray that Jewish people who long to know God would find the Father through You. Give them a hunger for truth that cannot be satisfied by anything less than You. Lead the seeker, the doubter and the skeptic to read the Scriptures with fresh eyes and to meet You in them. Bring believers across their path who live gently and answer honestly. Let none who sincerely seek You walk away without a clear invitation to follow You. Amen.

14. The Deliverer who comes out of Zion

> [26] And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: [27] For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.
> — Romans 11:26-27 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, Your word says that all Israel shall be saved, that the Deliverer shall come out of Zion and turn away ungodliness from Jacob, and that this is Your covenant when You take away their sins. I hold on to that promise tonight and pray toward its fulfilment. Let Your Spirit move among the Jewish people with power and tenderness. Remove ungodliness, forgive sins, and bring families, towns and whole communities to trust You. Give me patience and confidence while I wait, and use my prayers as You see fit. You keep Your promises, Lord, and I thank You in advance. Amen.

15. Welcoming Him who comes in the name of the Lord

> For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
> — Matthew 23:39 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You told Jerusalem that they would not see You until they say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. I pray for that day, and for every Jewish person who says it from the heart now. Strengthen Jewish believers in Israel and around the world, especially those who face loneliness, family pressure or fear for their jobs and homes. Give them joy in You and wisdom in how they speak. Let the welcome that Jerusalem will one day give You begin in many hearts today. Come, Lord Jesus, and be blessed among Your own people. Amen.

Closing prayer

Lord Jesus, I bring You Israel, the Jews in the land and in every nation, and Judea and Samaria. Protect the weak, comfort the grieving, restrain those who plan harm, and guide the leaders who will choose in days. Above all, reveal Yourself as Messiah and Lord to the people who first received Your promises. Hear these prayers for Your name's sake. Amen.
