Part 1 · Praying over today's news (points 1–5)

1. Harvesters and villagers wounded or killed near Burqa, and journalists attacked

In the news: Palestinian killed, several wounded in attack by settlers on olive harvesters near Burqa; Settlers beat AFP photographer covering West Bank violence

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

— Micah 6:8 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I bring before You the olive harvesters near Burqa, the man who died, those who were wounded, and the journalists who were beaten while reporting. You see every one of them. I ask for comfort for the grieving family and healing for the injured. Lord, You require justice, mercy and humility, so I ask that Israeli authorities and every community leader in Judea and Samaria would act justly, protect the vulnerable and restrain those who turn to violence. Soften hard hearts, and make the harvest a time of safety and peace for all who work the land. Show Your mercy to Palestinian and Jewish families alike, and walk humbly with us all, Lord Jesus. Amen.

2. Wisdom for leaders and voters three weeks before the 27 October election

In the news: Three years on, Netanyahu faces a reckoning over 7 October in the election campaign;
Analysis: Israeli politics "anchored in place" three years after 7 October

The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

— Proverbs 21:1 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You hold the hearts of rulers in Your hand and turn them as You will. I pray for Israel in these weeks before the election on 27 October. Give the leaders, candidates and voters wisdom, honesty and humility. Let the questions raised about the days before 7 October be answered with truth and not only with blame. Guard the election from violence, fear and bitterness, and guide the nation toward leaders who will protect life, seek peace and fear You. Lord, I ask that Your purposes, and not only human calculation, would shape what Israel decides. Turn the hearts of those who govern toward justice and toward You, Lord Jesus. Amen.

3. The bereaved and wounded three years after 7 October

In the news: Israelis mourn on the anniversary as Palestinians grapple with the war it sparked; Israel marks third anniversary of 7 October attack as election looms

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

— Psalm 147:3 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, three years have passed, and for many families the grief is still fresh. I pray for those who lost parents, children, friends and neighbours on 7 October, for those who came home from captivity carrying wounds that no one can see, and for the soldiers who still carry what they saw. You heal the broken in heart and bind up their wounds, so I ask You to do this now. Be near the widows, the orphans and the lonely at every memorial. Comfort the Palestinian families who also mourn their dead after this long war. Heal what no person can heal, Lord Jesus. Amen.

4. Jewish communities gathering to remember in Sydney, New York and Washington

In the news: Hundreds attend 7 October vigil in Sydney; New York Jewish community plans anniversary commemorations

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

— Revelation 21:4 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I thank You for the Jewish communities in Sydney, New York, Washington and many other cities who gathered this week to remember their dead. I pray for those still grieving after the Bondi attack and for every family who feels afraid when it gathers to pray. Be present at each vigil and each synagogue door. Protect these gatherings from hatred and violence. You promise a day when God will wipe away every tear and there will be no more death, sorrow or crying. Until that day, wipe the tears of Your people, give them courage to stay together, and let them know they are not forgotten. Come soon, Lord Jesus. Amen.

5. Peace and protection for Israelis and Jews abroad around the anniversary

In the news: Israel marks third anniversary of 7 October attack as election looms

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

— John 14:27 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You gave Your peace, not as the world gives it. I pray for Israelis living under the shadow of the warning about terror around the anniversary, and for the passengers and crews who were nearly killed in the attack on the flight to Tel Aviv. Quiet troubled hearts, and give sleep to the children who flinch at every siren. Guard Israel's security forces and give them wisdom so that they protect life. Guard Jewish families abroad who have been advised to be careful. Let not their hearts be troubled or afraid. Give peace in the cities, on the roads and in the homes, Lord Jesus. Amen.

Part 2 · Divine protection of Israel and the Jewish people (points 6–8)

6. God as a refuge for Israel in trouble

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

— Psalm 46:1 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are the refuge and strength of Your people and a very present help in trouble. I ask You to be that for the nation of Israel today, in every city and every border community, and for every soldier, medic and family that is under pressure. Be a wall of protection against rockets, drones, infiltrators and those who plan terror. Give leaders and the army wisdom, and keep innocent people on every side safe. I ask You to hold Israel in the hour of danger and to make Yourself known as the one who helps. Lord Jesus, be Israel's shelter. Amen.

7. If God be for us, who can be against us

³¹ What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? ³² He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

— Romans 8:31-32 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are for Your people, and nothing can finally stand against what You have promised. I pray this over Jewish families in Israel and across the world who have lately been afraid at synagogue, on campus and in the street. Let them hear that God is for them. I ask You to protect Jewish communities in Britain, Canada, Australia, the United States, Africa and everywhere from hatred, vandalism and violence. Move police, neighbours and governments to stand with them. Because the Father gave His own Son for us, I ask boldly for these needs, believing You will freely give what is good. Amen.

8. No one can pluck Your own out of Your hand

²⁸ And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. ²⁹ My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

— John 10:28-29 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You said that those who are Yours shall never perish and that no one can pluck them out of Your hand. I pray for Jewish believers in You in Israel and around the world, and for all who feel hunted or alone. Hold them fast. Keep Your hand over Jews in every nation, and over those who grieve, who are threatened, or who are displaced. Let Your Father's strength be greater than every enemy and every fear. Keep Your people safe and give them the confidence that they are held. Thank You that Your grip is stronger than ours. Amen.

Part 3 · Salvation of the Jewish people (points 9–10)

9. A new heart for Israel

A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

— Ezekiel 36:26 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You promised through Ezekiel a new heart and a new spirit for Israel, taking away the heart of stone and giving a heart of flesh. I long for that to be fulfilled in my Jewish friends and neighbours, in Israel and across the world. Soften hearts that grief, anger or old wounds have hardened. Give those who are weary of war a thirst for You. Open their eyes to see You, the Messiah of Israel. Do this work that only You can do, with the love that makes You worth following. Give a new heart to Your people, Lord Jesus. Amen.

10. God has made Jesus both Lord and Christ

Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

— Acts 2:36 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, Peter told the house of Israel that God has made You both Lord and Christ. I pray that many Jewish people would hear that same message in their own place and language and know it to be true. Raise up believers who speak with love and humility, with no contempt and with respect for the Jewish people. Where there has been hostility between churches and Jews, heal and forgive. Let the Holy Spirit convict gently and give joy in return. May many in Israel and in the diaspora say that You are Lord and Messiah. Draw them to Yourself, Lord Jesus. Amen.

Closing prayer

Lord Jesus, I give You Israel, the Jewish people in Israel and around the world, and Judea and Samaria. Comfort the grieving, protect the vulnerable, and give wisdom to those who lead. Bring peace where there is violence, and bring many of the Jewish people to know You as Messiah and Lord. I trust You with everything I have prayed, and I wait for You. Amen.
