Part 1 · Praying over today's news (points 1–5)

1. Unity and wisdom as Israel's election nears and Arab and Jewish parties weigh coalitions

In the news: Joint List says it would give a "safety net" to any anti-Netanyahu coalition

> Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> — Psalm 133:1 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, with sixteen days until the election I bring You Israel's divided campaign. I read that Arab and Jewish parties are weighing who could govern together, and I do not know how it will end, but You do. Make Your people dwell together in unity where that is right, and give every candidate honesty and every voter peace of mind. Keep the campaign free from hatred, threats and violence against Jews, Arabs, or anyone else. Lord, may whoever governs protect life, seek justice and love mercy, and may the good and pleasant thing You desire be seen across the land. Amen.

2. Gaza: civilians and soldiers amid continued strikes

In the news: IDF raises its tally of militants killed in Gaza over the past week to 17

> [9] He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire. [10] Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.
> — Psalm 46:9-10 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You make wars to cease to the end of the earth. I pray for Gaza, where the IDF reports strikes killing seventeen militants this week, and for the soldiers who serve there under constant threat. Protect the innocent families who live near every strike, and protect the young men and women in uniform. Restrain those who attack troops and break the ceasefire, and give Israel's commanders wisdom and restraint. Be still among us, Lord, and teach all sides to know that You are God. Bring a peace that lasts and let weapons be broken for good. Amen.

3. A soldier killed and three wounded in southern Lebanon

In the news: IDF raises its tally of militants killed in Gaza over the past week to 17

> [13] But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. [14] For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
> — 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, I weep with the family of the soldier who died when a Humvee overturned in southern Lebanon. Be near his parents, his friends and his unit, and comfort them as only You can. Heal the three who were wounded, restore their bodies and steady their minds. You rose again, and because You live, sorrow is not without hope for those who trust in You. Draw every grieving Israeli soldier and family close to You, and let them find that You are the resurrection and the life. Keep all who serve on that border safe. Amen.

4. Palestinian olive harvesters, settlers and the forces between them

In the news: Palestinian farmers ask for international protection during the olive harvest

> [9] Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother: [10] And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.
> — Zechariah 7:9-10 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, Palestinian farmers are asking for protection as they gather their olives in Judea and Samaria, and sources report attacks and closed land. I do not know every fact, but I know You love justice and mercy. Let no one be oppressed, let no hand be raised against a harvester, and let every grove be gathered in peace. Give the soldiers and police courage to act fairly, give settlers hearts of restraint, and comfort anyone already hurt. Turn every heart from evil thoughts against a neighbour, and bring Jews and Arabs there to honest, merciful ways of living side by side. Amen.

5. Regional violence, including the reported attack on Riyadh's airport

In the news: IDF raises its tally of militants killed in Gaza over the past week to 17

> [41] And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, [42] Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.
> — Luke 19:41-42 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You wept over Jerusalem because it did not know the things that belonged to its peace, and I weep with You over a region of attacks and fear. A reported strike on Riyadh's airport has left many killed and wounded, and the full facts are not yet clear. Comfort the families, heal the wounded, and keep the violence from spreading to Israel and its neighbours. Open eyes to the things that make for peace, give leaders restraint, and lead many in this troubled region to find in You the Prince of Peace. Let Jerusalem's peace be real. Amen.

Part 2 · Divine protection of Israel and the Jewish people (points 6–10)

6. Jerusalem and the watchmen on her walls

> [6] I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, [7] And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.
> — Isaiah 62:6-7 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You have set watchmen on the walls of Jerusalem, and You call Your people to give You no rest until You make her a praise in the earth. I pray for Jerusalem's residents, for the police, soldiers and guards who watch day and night, and for every family who walks her streets. Keep terror from her gates, keep her holy places safe for all who worship, and let peace settle in her. Strengthen those who stand watch, and teach the church to pray faithfully for her, until Your promise for the city is fulfilled. Amen.

7. Soldiers and civilians under threat on every border

> The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.
> — Joel 3:16 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are the hope of Your people and the strength of the children of Israel. I pray for the soldiers on the northern border, on the Gaza line and in the West Bank, and for the civilians in range of rockets, drones and knives. Be their refuge in the day of trouble. Shield them from attacks, give them clear judgment under pressure, and bring every one safe home to those who wait. Let Your voice be heard from Zion and be stronger than every threat spoken against Your people. Amen.

8. Jews scattered among the nations, and the Lord who gathers them

> [5] Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; [6] I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;
> — Isaiah 43:5-6 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You say to Your people, Fear not, for I am with you. I pray for Jewish families in London, Manchester, Toronto, New York, Sydney and everywhere else, as the National Security Council warns of risks around this anniversary. Guard every synagogue, school and community centre. Protect men, women and children who wear a kippah or a star of David on the street, and expose plots before they are carried out. Be near each lonely family and bring Your people home as You have promised. Amen.

9. God's covenant mercy toward Israel

> [54] He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; [55] As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.
> — Luke 1:54-55 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You have helped Your servant Israel in remembrance of Your mercy, as You spoke to Abraham and his seed for ever. I thank You that Your faithfulness to Israel does not rest on her strength, her politics or her merit but on Your word. When the nation is anxious about an election, a war and a hostile world, remind her that You keep Your promises. Preserve the Jewish people through every generation, and let Your mercy rest on Israel and on all who turn to You. Amen.

10. Deliverance from every evil work

> And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
> — 2 Timothy 4:18 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You deliver Your people from every evil work and preserve them for Your heavenly kingdom. I ask this for Israel and for Jews everywhere: deliver them from terrorist plots, from lies and slander, from fear and despair, and from every scheme meant to harm them. Deliver leaders from corruption and hasty decisions, deliver soldiers from error, and deliver ordinary families from losing hope. Keep the nation faithful to You, and let Your glory be seen over her for ever and ever. Amen.

Part 3 · Salvation of the Jewish people in Jesus Christ (points 11–15)

11. The sign of Immanuel foretold

> Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.
> — Isaiah 7:14 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, Your own prophet Isaiah told the house of David that a virgin would conceive and bear a son and call His name Immanuel, God with us. I pray that Jewish people who read this promise in their own Scriptures would see that You are the One who was promised. Open the eyes of those who study Isaiah in synagogues, in universities and at home. Draw Your people by Your Word and Your Spirit, so that they know You are with them and that You are their Messiah. Amen.

12. The ruler born in Bethlehem

> But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.
> — Micah 5:2 · KJV · Old Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are the One born in Bethlehem Ephratah, whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Many Jewish readers know Micah's words. I ask that they would recognise You as the ruler promised to Israel, the Shepherd and King. Give Jewish believers courage to share what they know, and give those who are searching a quiet certainty that You are real. Prepare hearts across Israel and the diaspora to receive You as the Messiah and Lord. Amen.

13. He came to His own

> [11] He came unto his own, and his own received him not. [12] But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:
> — John 1:11-12 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You came to Your own, and Your own received You not, yet to as many as received You You gave power to become the sons of God. I grieve over the unbelief of many in Israel and I do not blame them. I ask that You would give each Jewish person who hears of You the freedom to receive You and believe on Your name. Remove fear of losing family and community, and welcome every one who comes into Your household as a beloved son or daughter. Amen.

14. Great heaviness and continual sorrow for Israel

> [1] I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost, [2] That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. [3] For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:
> — Romans 9:1-3 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, like Paul, I carry heaviness and continual sorrow for my brothers and sisters of Israel. Give me and Your whole church the same love, free of pride and contempt. Let our prayers for Jewish people come from a heart that would give anything for them to know You. Make us faithful friends to Jewish neighbours, and let nothing we say or do ever add to their pain. Bring many in Israel to You, and may I never stop praying until they do. Amen.

15. Repentance, refreshing and the times of restitution

> [19] Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; [20] And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:
> — Acts 3:19-20 · KJV · New Testament

Prayer: Lord Jesus, Peter told the men of Israel to repent and be converted so that their sins might be blotted out and times of refreshing might come from Your presence. I pray that same call would reach Jewish hearts today. Give them godly sorrow, forgiveness and the refreshing of Your Spirit. Send faithful witnesses to Israel and to the Jewish communities of the nations. Let the One who was preached before come to be known as their Messiah and Lord, and may refreshing come to all Your people. Amen.

Closing prayer

Lord Jesus, I place Israel, the Jews of the diaspora and the people of Judea and Samaria in Your hands. Comfort the grieving, protect the innocent, give wisdom to those who lead, and restrain every hand that plots violence. Draw the Jewish people to Yourself as Messiah and Lord, and bring Your peace to Jerusalem and to all who live in this troubled region. For Yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen.
